Canadian Crooner Matt Dusk Releases New Album and Comes to Bellingham

Bellingham, WA — Hot off the heels of his recent Canadian tour, Matt Dusk is set to bring his captivating show, Matt Dusk Sings Tony Bennett, to Bellingham, Washington. On Saturday, February 15 at 7:30 p.m., Dusk will be live on Mount Baker Theatre's historic Main Stage filling the theatre with the songs of Tony Bennett.

Matt Dusk Sings Tony Bennett not only celebrates Bennett's memory, but also marks a milestone in Dusk's career and follows the success of his previous show, Matt Dusk Sings Sinatra, with sold-out performances in over 70 Canadian and U.S. cities. The new show is a musical journey through Bennett's timeless hits, including "I Left My Heart In San Francisco," "The Way You Look Tonight," and "The Good Life".

A lifelong admirer of Bennett, Dusk fondly recalls their friendship formed in the Las Vegas showroom they shared, where the late jazz singer imparted valuable career advice.

Dusk shares, "Tony Bennett was an idol for me growing up, and I'm thrilled to create the very first show to pay homage to such a legend. Stepping on stage with a smokin' band, performing these timeless hits is about the music, the musicians, and the memories from the man who was swingin' in every era."
